LOYAL LEGION BANQUET

WHICH WILL BE LARGELY ATTENDED

Great Meeting of a Noble and Eminent Affair. The Legion to Hold its June Meeting in Cleveland-Full List of Officers.

CINCINNATI, Jan. 27.—The first annual dinner of the Ohio Commandery of the Military Order of the Loyal Legion of the United States, which will be given at the Burnt House on Wednesday, February 6, promises to be in every way a notable affair. One year ago next month the Ohio Commandery was instituted, and in honor of that event a magnificent dinner was served by the Burnt House to the Commandery and visiting friends. The dinner was attended by members of the Order from Philadelphia, Boston, New York, and other Eastern cities, who came out in a special car, and one and all were lost in their praise of the entertainment given them, and are yet talking about the superb dinner served on the 6th of next month.

The dinner to be given on the 6th of next month, commemorating the first annual meeting of the Ohio Commandery, is everything in point of scale, and in many respects surpasses it. The decorating of the hall, and the arrangements for the evening will be of a most brilliant character.

Colonel F. T. Foster, who now has a national reputation as decorator at soldiers' reunions and other public gatherings, has been engaged to make the decorations. He has made drawings made of his decorations for the Loyal Legion meeting, and is at present working on them, and will have them ready for some weeks. He states that the decorations will surpass any ever seen at soldiers' reunions in the country.

The display of plants and lighted flowers will be a feature of the affair, and the floral decorations of the table will be of a most elaborate and handsome character. Messrs. Gardner & Huittman have charge of the floral arrangements, and have staked their reputation on making the most original and beautiful decorations ever seen in the city.

Capital Currier and his famous orchestra will delight the Loyal Legionners with choice instrumental selections, and a select company of vocalists will charm the guests with local music. The menu will be original in design, something new and interesting, and will be a souvenir of the event which every companion can carry back home. In fact, the arrangements for the evening are of a most enjoyable nature, and men who enjoy themselves in peace as well as in war, are completely captivated by the meeting will undoubtedly pass off without a jar or growl.

The Commandery has had a remarkable growth, more so than any other Commandery in its infancy. One year ago it had only twenty-nine members, and now it has over one hundred and fifty.
This is unprecedented in the history of the Order, and no other Commandery so successful in the first year of its life.

The Commandery is to be congratulated on its growth, and its members, but up on the fine class of men it has enrolled.
All applicants are rigidly investigated as to record in civil or naval, and as to standing, socially and morally, and unless they can show a clean and clear record they are not admitted. The members are the eyes of a needle as to endeavor to get into the Loyal Legion. The success of the Commandery is owing to the high character of its members, and especially to the fact that it has such an excellent class of officers.

The officers of the Commandery are:
Commander—Richardson B. Hayes, lieutenant—Charles H. Bates, Jr., Senior Vice Commander—C. C. Davis, Junior Vice Commander—Andrew C. Kemper, captain and A. D. C., U. S. V., Recorder—H. C. Corton, first lieutenant and also History Clerk, Treasurer—H. C.
Corton, major and A. A. G. U. S. A., Treasurer—M. F. Forre, brevet major general.
Chancellor—John H. Bates, brigadier-general U. S. V., Chaplain—Chauncey Richards, Captain 2nd U. S. C., Council—J. E. Foley, Major 10th Kansasy cavalry, J. B. Lewis, Captain and A. A. G. U. S. A., United States Volunteers; L. M. Dayton, Colonel and A. D. C., U. S. V., J. A. J. Milton Blair, Captain, U. S. V., Walcott, Major General United States Volunteers.

Ex-President Hayes will preside at the annual meetings on the 6th and at the dinner. Major General J. W. Schofield, U. S. A., and Brigadier General James A.
Riker, U. S. A., are among the distinguished guests who will be present. Members of the Order to be here by Major General D. Leggett, Colonel J. F. Herrick, Major General R. P. Buckland, General J. K.
Wall, Major General James H. Morgan, and Colonel W. Wright, Major General C. J.
Waggoner, Major Sam B. Smith, Colonel J.
Kilbourne, Captain and A. D. C., U. S. V., Young, Colonel F. Guenther, U. S. A.; Major W. H. Bell, U. S. A.; Colonel George Ward Nichols, Colonel Charles H.
Greene, and about 100 others.

The June meeting of the Commandery will be held in Cleveland.

THE BATAVIA SENSATION.

Progress of the Celebrated Rowell

BATAVIA, N. Y., Jan. 27.—Palmer, the witness under examination, said that Tuesday afternoon a telegram had come to the box office addressed to Miss Jennie Rowell.
He read the telegram, said it sent it to Mrs. Rowell, and it was sent to Syracuse and read: "Will be up at 7 minutes Lowrey." Witness then hastened to the hotel, and, within five minutes after receiving it, had acquainted Rowell of its contents. The telegram was given to him by a man who had informed the boys, who were to rush into the house and turn the advertiser out. The well-known statement was given to him after the shooting and when he was under arrest. Witness saw Rowell in the jail the morning after the shooting, when Rowell said: "I found him in the bed room and tried to put pepper in his eyes, but he was such a big fellow I could not reach around him. He got up and came for me, and I was afraid he would get hold of me, so I commenced shooting at him. He ran down stairs and I followed shooting till the pistol was empty. At the foot of the stairs I struck at him with the slung shot, and thought I had knocked him down. He did not then know I had hit him with a bullet." There were no ladies in the court the morning.

The court room was crowded again in the afternoon. Palmer's cross examination was continued. One Palmer came into their office and found Rowell crying and saying to himself: "She was such a pretty woman. Rowell was a kind and loving man to his family. He took great pains in creating the new house and accepted his wife's suggestions regarding the place. Palmer said that he suggested to Rowell that the letter box be watched and that Lynch that night visited the new house. He was a very careful man, and less Rowell was armed, he might crush him. Palmer also explained to the prisoner how to make a slung shot of stone and stocking, saying it was more effective than a club. Rowell said his share in the party taken for $1500. He had no other property except his house, which he partly purchased with money received from the party.

Rowell sits with his back to the judge and face to the audience, and endeavors to pay no attention to what is going on.
The children have not been in court all today. Mrs. Rowell is still at the Washburn House and is making a slung shot of stone and stocking, saying it was more effective
share in the party taken for $1500. He had no other property except his house,
which he partly purchased with money
received from the party.

Palmer concluded his testimony in the Rowell case at 4:30 o'clock, after a sharp and pointed cross examination. He is titled that many of Rowell's actions before the time of the shooting led him to believe that Mrs. Rowell was a very reporter who found the bullet in the pillow the day after the shooting, and Mr. Turner said that he was a witness for the prosecution. District Attorney Norton at 5 o'clock announced that he would close the case and the Court adjourned for the day. Judge Sutton will open the case for the defense and Mr. Norton will sum up for the prosecution. The trial of the evening is regarding an alleged interview with Mrs. Rowell in the Spirit of the Times, a weekly paper of Batavia which is just out. It charges Palmer with having made improper advances to Mrs. Rowell, and the republican, and the republican Palmer has only a few lines before she thought more of Lynch than she did of Rowell. The possible language is quoted as having been used by Mrs. Rowell, and contempt for the public. The trial of the evening will be a decided sensation after the adjournment of the Court. Mrs. Rowell will be called to the stand and will be heard of it, and denominated it as absolutely false in every respect. The interview is regarding the alleged interview with a foreign neighbor of the Rowells, who, a few days ago, made a friendly call on her, and with her she was conversing, but she was not without using, as she claims, the expressions attributed to her.

A TRIPLE HANGING.

Execution of Three Negroes—The Crime
For Which They Died.

CENTER POINT, Ark., Jan. 27.—Lige Thompson, Henry Thompson and John Wright, three negroes, were hanged here Friday afternoon. The three negroes were the leaders of a bloody race riot in this city last year. The riot was a terrible one, and resulted in the death of a large number of whites. The three negroes were convicted of the crime, and were hanged here Friday afternoon. The three negroes

DENVER MINE DISASTER.

DETAILS OF THE TERRIBLE AFFAIR.

The Blackened and Unrecognizable Remnants of Fifty-Seven Victims Already Recovered—Particulars Before the Coroner's Jury.

DENVER, Col., Jan. 27.—Twenty-three more burned bodies were recovered from the Crested Butte mine, making fifty-seven in all, but two remain. Those recovered Saturday were all found in Chamber No.
2, and in the passage-way in the immediate vicinity.

Many have arms and legs broken, skulls crushed in and clothing burned, so that in many cases it drops off in rags when the body is moved. The hair is burned from the heads, and all the skin is burned off the face and neck, and the bodies are black, leaving an utterly unrecognizable mass of raw and bleeding flesh. The appearance of these bodies is horrible beyond description, and it is hardly likely that any of them can be recognized. Many of the bodies have coal dust ground into them until they are as black as the coal itself.

Today the company began the erection of a large frame building, where the bodies will be placed and where funeral services will be held. Crowds are coming on every train and on snow shoes from all the surrounding country. The Colorado Coal and Iron Company, besides the erection of the building spoken of, will bear all the funeral expenses, and will make ample provision for the needy families of the deceased. It is thought the other two bodies will be got out of the mine by midnight.

The inquiry was begun at noon. A Coroner's jury was summoned by Coroner N.
Boyd. After viewing the bodies, thirty-four bodies already brought out, it adjourned.
Since that time the hearing of evidence has been going on in the parlors of the Elks Mountain House, and will be continued daily. The witnesses examined so far have been Dr. Crockett of Junction; Dr. Gier-

EXTRAORDINARY CASE.

A Man for Thirty-eight Years Passes Himself off for a Woman.

BALTIMORE, Md., Jan. 27.—A special dispatch from Winchester, Va., says that the people of the Valley of Virginia are agog over the discovery that one of the residents of a place called West, seven miles south of Winchester, who has for her ever having passed as a woman, has suddenly turned out to be a man. James H. Riley, Clerk of the County Court, was started a few days since by Miss Elizabeth Rebecca Payne applying to him for a license to marry Miss Hinton. Mr. Riley informed her that the law of Virginia did not permit one woman to marry another woman, whereupon she stated that she was a man, and produced the certificate of Dr. McGuire to that effect. Miss Payne has always moved in the best society in the valley, and, owing to her never having had any sign of beard, her sex was not discovered. It was only her, or rather his, love for Miss Hinton that induced him to reveal his sex. In business transactions she was always noted for her shrewdness, and so successful was she in her undertakings that she has acquired a large fortune.

OCEAN VESSELS COLLIDE.

A Collision in the English Channel Results in Great Loss of Life.

LONDON, Jan. 27.—During the storm in the English Channel to-day, the clipper ship, City of Lucknow, bound to London from Australia, ran into the ship Ninia which had left London for Sydney, off the Isle of Wight. The Ninia sank almost immediately but the City of Lucknow, although badly injured, kept afloat and made her way to London. The Ninia had no passengers, but had a crew of fifty officers and men of whom many are still missing, seventeen of them being picked up by the German, and a few saved their lives by clinging to the fore chains of the City of Lucknow. The last vessel belonging to the White and Moore Australian line was commanded by Captain M. Nicholson. She was of 2,172 tons register and had a cargo valued at $1,000,000.

Catholic Church Burned.

FOX DO LAKE, Wis., Jan. 27.—Paul's cathedral, Catholic, was destroyed by fire Friday morning. There were services at the church the night before, to be continued on Friday. The sexton visited the church for the purpose of building a fire in the furnace. Shortly after, he discovered flames in one of the cold air flues. These he extinguished, and immediately the fire burst out from the other flue. Which the department, reached the building the interior was in flames, and the whole inside, including the roof, was burned, leaving the bare walls standing. The church was completed in 1898, at a cost of $25,000, and was free from debt. It was insured for $15,000.

Miss Williams' Death.

BOSTON, Jan. 27.—Miss Molly Williams, a young lady living near St. Joseph, Mo., has just finished making a silk quilt, the blocks of which are filled with pieces of the dresses of more or less distinguished women throughout the country. Among the ladies who kindly furnished her specimens are: Mrs. Grant, Mrs. Sartoris, Mrs. Governor Knott, Mrs. Langtry, Ferny Davanport, Ellen Terry, Clara Morris, Maggie Mitchell, Kellogg, Bernhardt, Lotta, Anna Dickman, Mrs. Hendricks, Phoebe Cushman, Mrs. Fletcher, Mrs. Medill, Mrs. Story, Thomas E. Fletcher, Mrs. Carlisle, Mrs. Waterson and Mrs. Crittenden.

Death of Ex-Governor Letcher.

RICHMOND, Va., Jan. 27.—Ex-Governor John Letcher died Saturday at his home in Lexington. Soon after the General Assembly met Governor Cameron sent an official communication announcing his death, saying: "The life of our ex-Governor was full of and honorable service to the State. All departments of the Government, and all classes of people should unite in mourning for his loss in a reverent tribute to the memory of the wise, honest and patriotic son of Virginia."

Wreck on the Lehigh Valley Road. EAZON, Pa., Jan. 27.—A Lehigh Valley freight train was wrecked Saturday morning below Bethlehem by the breaking of an axle under the engine car. Twelve cars were thrown in zigzag shape on the down track and across the track at the Bethlehem Iron Company opposite. Seven were crushed, and the contents, consisting of grain, chaff, etc., dumped along the road. John H. Meyers, of Eazon, a brakeman, received serious injuries by being thrown from the top of a car.

Political Troubles in Iowa.

MURKIN, Ia., Jan. 27.—The Daily Journal published to-day an article from Hon. John Mahin one of the recognized leaders of the Prohibition movement in Iowa, in opposition to the proposed National Prohibition Convention to nominate a candidate for President and Vice President. He pronounces the movement unwelcome and ill-advised, and urges the Prohibitionists of Iowa to stand aloof from and protest against it.

Worn, Weary, and Wretched.

"As weak as a cat" is an expression frequently used by debilitated sufferers who are trying to tell how forlorn they feel. It is an incorrect expression, for a cat is one of the most agile and vigorous animals in existence. It would be more correct to say, "as weak as a limp old rag," for that gives the idea of utter inability to hold one's self up. The weary person who feels thus is generally worn, worried, woeful, and wretched.

Sometimes it is a case of overwork, and sometimes of imperfect nourishment. The blood in the system of a person who is "as weak as a rag" is in a wretchedly thin condition. It needs iron to impart richness, redness, and strength. This is to be had by taking BROWN'S IRON BITTERS, the only safe and proper preparation of iron in connection with gentle and powerful tonics. The physician and the druggist can tell the worn and weary how valuable a remedy BROWN'S IRON BITTERS has been found in actual every-day use.

Kendall's Spavin Cure.

SANTA ROSA, California, Feb. 9, 1893. B. J. KENDALL & Co., Gentles.—I feel it duty to others suffering with the piles and falling of the rectum to write to you. I have had the piles and proptosis of the rectum for five years, for the last three years I have suffered the most agonizing pain. I tried everything without relief, but after ten day's use of Kendall's Spavin Cure, I have not seen or heard of the piles since. One who has not suffered as I have cannot comprehend the great joy I felt at being cured of a disease almost worse than death. I had a valuable young horse that had a large bunch gall on his breast bone. I tried all kinds of liniments and had it cut open without any benefit. I saw your advertisement and bought a bottle of Kendall's Spavin Cure and ordered my steamer to use as directed. In less than one week the lump had disappeared. Thinking that a liniment that would do what Kendall's Spavin Cure has done for my horse must benefit more. I tried it a little more. With gratitude and best wishes for your success, I am faithfully yours, J. H. GLENN.
